

Angel Friend.

Feeling on the floor of ceiling,
Breathing in the evening pane;
How oft the tender voice
Tells me of the love I bear;
I forget, while listening to them;
All the sorrow I have known,
And the joy I have known;
Faith's pure shining light is there;
Soothed with their magic whisper,
Gone are the sorrows, the fears;
Then they bring me sweet solace,
Peace for sorrow, smiles for tears.
They are the angels of my life,
Leave me lonely on the way;
My gentle friends, I thank you.

PIEASANT, VENY.—The Toronto Globe chronicles the 17th of the St. Clair Flate Bill by President Pierce, and add this "instructive" remark.

The action of General Pierce is exceedingly favorable to the Collingwood route.

THE ARDEN MILL, THE WORLD.—The Arden Mill, Liverpool, is the largest in the world—the first surface corn-mill of 100 acres. The largest mill in England is over eleven and a half acres. There are now in operation in the Pacific 40,000 cotton spindles and 10,000 wool spinning spindles; and these are to be increased to 50,000 spinning spindles. There are 2,300 looms in operation, to be increased to 2,400. These, with 2,600 persons, produce 300,000 pieces of cloth per annum, one half of which is sent to America. The cost is 20,000 pounds of cotton, or 1,000,000 pounds of cotton per annum, and 600,000 pounds of wool. Once a month 2,000 persons assemble at the mill's office, where they pay out to them $50,000, for wages, apportioned to each the exact amount he earned.

WIRTS.—We have taken considerable pains to the contrary concerning the wheat crop on the ground. The wheat was sown late last fall, and was consequently thin this spring. Besides the wheat crop is not up to the mark. The snow blew off, and the wheat was frozen out. The present rains have, however, given wheat an excellent start, and in a majority of cases the prospects of a good crop are considered excellent. There is a good deal of wheat in the market, for which purchasers now offer from six to seventy-five cents a bushel. Farmers who we offered $1.75 per bushel for their wheat last December, hold on for $2—now have to sell for six cents a bushel. But with a good crop of wheat here the market has the last word in wheat, except for feed.—Am. Agric.
